

Team Report and Confidential Recommendation

One of the major responsibilities of the team assigned to conduct an evaluation on behalf of the Commission is to prepare a report documenting how, and how well the institution fulfills each of the Commission's standards. The team report is submitted to the Commission and to the institution. The team also prepares a confidential recommendation that is submitted only to the Commission.